

Pencil Virtual Summer Camp

Don't let Covid-19 keep your child from creativity !

A new trend of learning

Don't let COVID-19 rob your chance to enjoy the fun of arts & crafts! Since the closure in March 2020, we have been having virtual classes and have received great support from families. With an intimate and focused group of students in each class, teachers were able to build great relationships with the students and have proven to be an effective alternative to in-person learning. It is an unavoidable new reality that each of us may have a learning curve to get used to, but don't let that discourage you from trying! Kids love making stuff and talking to other kids and teachers!

Projects we have taught in the past 2 months

We even did a virtual birthday party!!

Camp highlights

- From Jun 22 to Sept 4, 2020

Themes & structure

For a typical 5-day week, there are 3 themes :

Mon & Tue : Theme 1

Wed & Thur : Theme 2

Fri : Fantasy Friday !!

Fantasy Friday !

For every Friday, we are having this special theme that is a whole series of lessons to do fantasy art. We will also have a bonus session: imaginative game time (Dungeons & Dragons ) with the Friday campers at 1 - 2 pm. There are a total of 9 Fantasy Fridays throughout the summer in which we will guide them from character design, fantasy world design to creating magical animals and monsters such as unicorn, elves and orc etc. It is for someone who love to let their imagination flows and happy to create stories with others!

* On 4-day weeks (Jun 29 - Jul 3 & Aug 3 - 7), "Fantasy Friday" will not be held and will be replaced by other themes.

We can do both curb side at Markham studio and delivery for the camp materials depending on where you live. We will make sure you have the materials before your camp starts.

Special notes on Clay sessions

Clay projects spans over two sessions over two separate days (e.g. Mon & Tue to complete one clay project): one to sculpt and one to paint and add details.

Parents wil need to help baked the clay after we sculpt and be ready for the next day to paint. Baking instructions will be provided with the material pack.

The clay are oven-baked, high quality polymer clay, It is safe to use home toaster to bake. It is not toxic once it's cured. For more details : <https://www.sculpey.com/create/support/faqs/>

If you have concerns about the use of polymer clay but still want to do clay project, please let us know and we can try to work out an alternative option. We chose this clay because of it's durability and capability to sculpt detail work.

Policies & FAQ

What's your refund policy

We do not and have never offered refund. We only offer studio credit which do not expire and we are confident that with all the classes we are providing each week right now for your children and yourself and any future services that you can make use of the credits. We simply cannot afford to refund as we are now under a lot of financial stress. I hope you can all understand we are doing our best now to sustain the business and continue to provide our services to all students.

I have already paid the in-person Summer camp

As of now May 26, 2020, we are not sure if we can open in-person summer camp. It is only safe to plan for virtual summer camp. What you had paid for our summer camp can be converted back to credit and be used for this virtual summer camp. Since the in-person camp is more expensive than the virtual camp, you will have some credit left and you can use towards our other virtual classes or more weeks for virtual camp. You can also choose to not use your credit and use it for in-person services when we re-open, but you will have to wait.

I am not sure about virtual learning for my kids

We understand for some younger kids (usually aged under 6), it may seem like it is hard for them to stay focused. We think parent's assistance for younger kids during class is crucial, especially in getting the paint ready and learning the routine of virtual art class. It may not be for every child as all children are different, but you can give it a try with our virtual classes (usually 1 to 1.5 hour long) and see. It can be a fun activity for you and your child to do !
